INVESTMENT APPROACH

“The intelligent investor is a realist who sells to optimists and buys from pessimists.” –Benjamin Graham, Intelligent Investor

ARGI’s Value portfolio combines proprietary criteria with the academic research by Eugene Fama and Kenneth French on value stocks and investment techniques developed by Benjamin Graham, the author of Intelligent Investor.

The Value portfolio is one of ARGI’s most aggressive portfolios with the goal of investing in potentially undervalued securities with what we believe are strong fundamentals. It is designed to invest in up to thirty U.S.-based stocks through a quantitative, rules-based methodology.

Performance results are presented in U.S. dollars and include reinvestment of dividends. Portfolio performance is calculated and derived from our internal proprietary systems and return figures are shown net of management fees and internal expenses. No current or prospective client should assume future performance of any specific investment strategy will be profitable or equal to past performance levels. ARGI Investment Services began offering portfolio on 10/1/2011. On 3/31/2018, some of the Value portfolio's investment criteria was amended. These portfolio changes were reviewed and approved by ARGI's Investment Committee.

All investment strategies have the potential for profit or loss. Changes in investment strategies, contributions or withdrawals may cause the performance results of your portfolio to differ materially from the reported composite performance. Different types of investments involve varying degrees of risk, and there can be no assurance that any specific investment will either be suitable or profitable for a client's investment portfolio.

Diversification and asset allocation help you spread risk throughout your portfolio, so investments that do poorly may be balanced by others that do relatively better. Neither diversification nor asset allocation can ensure a profit or protect against a loss.

Economic factors, market conditions, and investment strategies will affect the performance of any portfolio and there are no assurances that it will match or outperform any particular benchmark. ARGI Investment Services (AIS) is registered as an investment advisor with the United States

An investor should consider their Model Portfolio's investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses carefully before investing or sending money. Some clients of AIS experience different performance results than the model portfolio due to unique situations including cash distribution requirements, unique non-model holdings, and additional situations particular to an individual client.

The "Model Portfolios" listed above represent a fictional account which AIS attempts to manage in a manner similar to that of a tax-exempt client fund with no particular need for special portfolio considerations. AIS' management fees are described in Part 2A of AIS's Form ADV. An investment in any AIS model portfolio is not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency.
