

Factor 15 Small Cap Portfolio

FACTSHEET | 2019 | Q3

$100,000 MINIMUM INVESTMENT

INVESTMENT APPROACH

This portfolio seeks to outperform the S&P 600 Index over the long-term with a concentrated portfolio of small cap companies (generally market capitalizations up to $3 billion) that exhibit characteristics associated with market factors that have historically outperformed over time.

The fifteen equally-weighted stocks are screened and selected from the S&P 600 Small Cap Index utilizing a set of quantitative metrics. These metrics focus on the potential for outperformance by selecting companies we believe have earnings momentum, quality balance sheets, high profitability, and attractive valuations.

KEY PORTFOLIO ATTRIBUTES

Disciplined Investing

Quantitative rules mitigate emotional decisions from influencing long-term returns.

Portfolio Concentration

Concentrated positions increase the volatility of the portfolio while potentially allowing for greater wealth generation.

Quarterly Rebalancing

Rebalancing and reallocation occurs quarterly to systematically buy low and sell high while resetting key fundamental criteria.

Regular Attention

Regular analysis and research on the strategy helps ensure portfolio adheres to model rules.

KEY PORTFOLIO FACTORS

Value

Research shows that companies with lower valuations tend to outperform over full market cycles.

Quality

Companies that exhibit quality earnings generally have competitive advantages and more consistent returns.

Size

Measured by market capitalization, small companies are shown to outperform large companies over the long term.

Earnings Momentum

Historically, stocks that have exhibited consistently growing earnings have outperformed in the future.

All investment strategies have the potential for profit or loss. Changes in investment strategies, contributions or withdrawals may cause the performance results of your portfolio to differ materially from the reported composite performance. Different types of investments involve varying degrees of risk, and there can be no assurance that any specific investment will either be suitable or profitable for a client's investment portfolio.

Diversification and asset allocation help you spread risk throughout your portfolio, so investments that do poorly may be balanced by others that do relatively better. Neither diversification nor asset allocation can ensure a profit or protect against a loss.

Economic factors, market conditions, and investment strategies will affect the performance of any portfolio and there are no assurances that it will match or outperform any particular benchmark. An investor should consider their Model Portfolio's investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses carefully before investing or sending money. This and other important information about the AIS Managed Portfolios can be found in the firms' ADV. If you would like additional information on any of AIS' Managed Investment Strategies contact Jan Peebles, Chief Compliance Officer or Dan Cupkovic, Director of Investments at 502-753-0609. Some clients of AIS experience different performance results than the model portfolio due to unique situations including cash distribution requirements, unique non-model holdings, and additional situations particular to an individual client.

The "Model Portfolios" listed above represent a fictional account which AIS attempts to manage in a manner similar to that of a tax-exempt client fund with no particular need for special portfolio considerations. AIS' management fees are described in Part 2A of AIS's Form ADV.
